

AMERICAN REVIEW OF CANADIAN STUDIES

Volume 55, Number 3 (Fall 2025)

Special Enders Issue on US-Canada Relations | Guest Editor: Daniel Macfarlane

INTRODUCTION

THOMAS O. ENDERS

DANIEL MACFARLANE

Introduction to the Special Issue: US-Canada Energy and Environmental Relations

ARTICLES

OWEN TEMBY, EVELYN ROOZEE, DONGKYU KIM, AND
GORDON M. HICKEY

Institutional and Ideational Features of Canadian-U.S. Fishery Management Networks: Connectivity, Coherence, and Collaboration

JEREMY J SCHMIDT

Before the Boundary Waters Treaty: Irrigation Experts and International Controversy in Western Settlement

RAMYA SWAYAMPRAKASH

Diplomatic and Technical: The International Joint Commission and the Politics of Infrastructure in the Lower Detroit River, 1912-17

JIM KENNY

A Tale of Two Dams: Debating Hydroelectricity on the International St. John River, 1953-1968

MARK KUHLBERG

"I Do Not Know Anything About This Matter": The West Virginia Pulp and Paper Company, Canadian Pulpwood, and Navigating the Procurement of Raw Materials in a Foreign Land

RODGER PAYNE

Evaluating the Resilience of US and Canadian Climate Policy

BARRY RABE

The Politics of Nuclear Waste Management and the Divergent Paths of the United States and Canada

MARY BAXTER

Border Gas: How Early Efforts to Transport Natural Gas Across the Canada-U.S. Great Lakes Border Shaped an Industry

TEACHING NOTE

CLAIRE CAMPBELL

Neighbours to the North

To order hard copies, contact:
American Review of Canadian Studies
Editors: Andrew C. Holman and Brian Payne
Tel.: 508-531-2688 | Email: arcs@bridgew.edu
www.acsus.org/american-review-canadian-studies